

Anderson House
2301 Packard road
Ann Arbor, Michigan
Washtenaw Co

MI-
HABS No. 27-22 ✓
HABS
MICH
81-ANAR
3

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District No. 27

Historic American Buildings Survey
Eranson V. Gamber, District Officer
3500 Union Guardian Building, Detroit, Michigan

HABS
MICH.

31-ANN

2-

ANDERSON HOUSE
2301 Packard Street
Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County
Michigan

Owner: Louise Knox Estate.

Date of Erection: 1836.

Architect and Builder: No record.

Present Condition: Good.

Number of Stories: One.

Materials of Construction: Wood; stone foundation.

Other Existing Records: See text.

Additional Data: See following pages,

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

District #27 - 22

April 28, 1934.

ANDERSON HOUSE

Information from Law Offices

BURKE AND BURKE

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

The Anderson House, is located at #2301 Packard Road, just outside of the city limits of Ann Arbor, Michigan, on the North side of the road.

It was built in 1836 by Sheriff William Anderson, and sold in 1858 to William E. Anderson - remained in his family until recently, when last member, a daughter, Clellie* Anderson died. Present Owner - Louise Knox Estate.

Frame construction, low, simple, diminutive temple type with heavy square column portico, vertical siding. - Second story windows in frieze with cast-iron grilles.

*Nellie?

J. Philip McDonnell

H.A.B.S. - Member.

Very similar to Kempf house at 312 South Division St.

Revised 1936, H.C.F.